Report of Health Officer For Year Ending December 31, 1934

Cases Reported:

Whooping Cough	1
Mumps	5
Smallpox	2
Lobar Pneumonia	1
Measles	85
Dog bite	2
Animal carcasses disposed of	21
Nuisances corrected	3

All effort to trace the source of the first case of Smallpox in town in fifty or more years was unavailing, as at that time there was no case of that disease, in the Atlantic States, nearer than West Virginia. The quarantine and disinfection of the cases were by advice and direction of Dr. Weaver of the State Board, and it is gratifying that there was no spread and none of the panic that would have been evident in the old days.

There occurred during the year an epidemic of measles that affected nearly all of the children not already immune, and some adults.

The carcasses of six dogs of various breeds and twelve cats were found on the "Dugway" dump and disposed of. This was evidently the work of some Kennel or Veterinary. Some evidence was obtained as to the author, but not enough to get a conviction.

The trucks conveying garbage from Haverhill to the "piggery" were found to be overloaded and strewing matter on the highway and the driver was warned. This was also taken up with the Haverhill Health Department.

HENRY L. BURBECK,
Health Officer.

Report of Superintendent of Schools

To the School Board and Citizens of Newton:

It is a pleasure to present my eighth annual report as Superintendent of Schools. Reports are also submitted by the Music Supervisor and the School Nurse.

The school organization for 1934-1935 is given in the table at the end of this report. There has been no change in the teaching force since my last report.

The enrollment of pupils last year was 159, which is 8 more than during the previous year. Our record of attendance is creditable. The attendance averaged 95.45% of the membership. The average for the state was 94.9%. Fifteen pupils completed the work of the eighth grade, all of whom entered high school. The medal presented annually by the Sons of the American Revolution to the member of the graduating class who has best exemplified the habits of good citizenship, was awarded to Beth Ashton.

The last district meeting appropriated money for installing toilets at the Junction School. This work was done during the summer in a very satisfactory manner. A small building eight feet by ten feet was attached to the side of the regular school building, and the toilets were installed in this new addition. Those that are familiar with the appearance of the grounds of the Junction School feel that not only were the new toilets provided, but the appearance of the grounds and school building has been improved.

At the time that the toilets were installed, the entry partitions were moved in such a way as to enlarge the room that has previously been used as a supply room, into a room large enough to be used as a special work room. A table will be bought for this room, which will make it possible to have group work as well as individual instruction.

Funds raised by school entertainments have been used to very good advantage. At the Junction School an upright piano was bought to replace the one discarded, and a number of books were added to the School Library. At the Rowe's Corner School copper screens for a part of the windows, were purchased with money from the operetta fund. A work table was made for the primary room, which makes it possible for group work. It also trains the children for worthy use of leisure time.

The school buildings are in a good state of repair. The interior of both the Junction and the Village Schools were repainted last spring. The labor was paid for by C. W. A. funds. In case P. W. A. funds are available this winter, a well should be provided at the Village School. Also, a fence should be erected between the road and the school yard. This would prevent children while playing, from running into the street, thus exposing themselves to danger.

The activities of supervision are centered in helping the children to real achievement, growth in character and citizenship, and happy living. Visits, tests, conferences, and teachers' meetings are employed in directing the work of the schools. Parents have been helpful, but more contacts with them would be welcome.

In the schools there has been an earnest endeavor to discover the needs, defects, incapacities, as well as the abilities of the pupils, and to diagnose and prescribe for the pupil as an individual. In order to make this adjustment of the school to the pupil, a testing program has been used in every grade room in all the schools. The achievement made by the children is satisfactory. We are fortunate in having no change in our teaching staff. Our teachers are giving very satisfactory service. Their schoolrooms are places of homelike living and of real accomplishment.

Present-day elementary and secondary school instruction demand a larger collection of books and other reading materials. When instruction was largely of the drill type, a textbook was sufficient for that method, but now that the project, the problem, and the laboratory methods and unit assignments are the recognized modes of teaching, a single textbook does not suffice. There must be supplementary material and some sort of a school library.

Since the amount of leisure time is increasing, not only for adults because of shorter working hours, but also for children because home occupations in which they once had a part are disappearing, library service is essential, not merely for supplementary textbooks, but for providing reading material for leisure time without reference to assigned lessons. Children should read books for the "fun of it." If this is made a school objective, the reading habit for leisure time may become well established.

Children, when undernourished or insufficiently clad cannot attend school regularly or profit from instruction. While the number of such children is somewhat smaller than it has been, yet there has been need for some relief. No single feature of state and federal relief has a greater bearing on the health of growing children than the daily distribution of milk to those children in need of same. Through the initiative of ex-Governor Winant, federal funds were secured and free milk service has continued since early in 1933. At present 27 children are receiving one-half pint of milk each per day at school. Cod liver oil has also been furnished in the same way. The Red Cross has continued to furnish money for first aid and other emergency need among the children.

Federal funds have been available which have enabled Miss Thomas to do considerable remedial work with defective teeth, eyes, and tonsils, for children where the homes could not pay for such work. It is certain that the relief that is being furnished will do much to prevent the distress of the present period from leaving its mark upon the next generation.

It is more evident than ever that better opportunities come to boys and girls that attend high school for four years. Today the child that does not go through high school is the exception, as in former times, those that did complete high schools were the exception.

Parents were again given the opportunity to inspect the work accomplished by the children in the classroom. One of the many fine exhibits at the annual fair of the Eclipse Grange was the exhibition of school work. Teachers annually avail themselves of this opportunity and place on exhibition all types of work accomplished in the classroom. Our display of work has always been a great center of interest.

November 4th through the 10th was observed as American Education Week in our schools. All children were asked to extend invitations to their parents to visit schools during that week. Afternoon sessions were visited by large numbers of interested parents. Parents were thus able to see how our classes are conducted today and to learn what their own children were accomplishing in the classroom. In order to have a closer contact with our schools more parents should avail themselves of opportunities to visit the classroom.

Mrs. Thompson continues her effective work in music instruction. She has made the children love good music and happy while studying it. The music at programs in the schools and at graduation is concrete evidence of her effectiveness in this capacity.

In conclusion I wish again to express my appreciation for the fine co-operation and support of the School Board, townspeople, parents, teachers, and pupils during the year.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM J. NELSON,

Superintendent.

Report of Supervisor of Music

To the Superintendent of Schools:

I hereby submit my annual report as Supervisor of Music in the Newton schools.

Three new sets of books were added at the beginning of the school year. The Music Hour, Second Book, in grade three, Newton Junction, Fourth Book in grades four and five Newton Village and Fifth Book grades five and six at Rowe's Corner. The Music Hour course is new and attractive. As the old books wear out I hope to replace them with books from this course.

Music lovers and intelligent listeners are being created through our musical appreciation course. Recognition of musical instruments is taught by sight and sound with the help of the Victrola and picture charts. Each choir of instruments is studied separately and then the orchestra as a whole. Music memory work has been done in all the schools. The music memory lists are made up of the world's best known classics.

In closing I wish to express my thanks to you and the teachers for the hearty cooperation extended me throughout the year.

Respectfully submitted,

EVA W. THOMPSON.
